Procurement Rules & Regulations Forms 62

Chapter I General

1.1 Objectives, Application & Definitions

1.1.1 Objectives

- 1.1.1.1 The purpose of the provisions contained in this Procurement Rules & Regulations is to:
- a. Ensure the transparency of Government procurement through the application of standard procurement procedures;
 - b. Achieve uniformity of the procurement procedures of Government Agencies;
 - c. Achieve economy and efficiency in the procurement of goods, works and services;
 - d. Ensure fair and equal access to the suppliers, consultants and contractors for award of contracts for supply of goods, services or works.

1.1.2 Application

- 1.1.2.1 These rules shall apply to all Government agencies including Armed Forces except for the following cases:
- a. When the Government grants exemption from application of these rules in view of the basic security interests of the State or the requirements of special security measures in particular works, goods and services contracts;
 - b. When, due to some special circumstances, the Government grants exemption to the application of these rules for execution of a project funded by external assistance, and provides for adherence of some specific procurement procedure under the relevant financing agreement;
- 1.1.2.2 In case of goods of Bhutanese origin:
- a. In case of any Procurement, goods of Bhutanese origin may be given preferential treatment. Where two or more tenders are equivalent in the light of evaluation methods and factors set out in 5.4, preference shall be given to the bid offering goods of Bhutanese origin provided that the price difference does not exceed five percent (5%). Use of preferences shall be indicated in the bidding documents. Similarly, a five percent (5%) margin of preference may be given to the National bidders in case of works.
 - b. Notwithstanding paragraph (a), a bid shall not be preferred to another where its acceptance would oblige the Procuring Agency to acquire material having technical characteristics different from those of the existing material, resulting in incompatibility or technical difficulties in operation and maintenance or disproportionate costs.
- 1.1.2.3 These rules shall not apply to all Government agencies in the case of:
- a. entrusting an assignment as deposit work to another agency of the Government provided that the entrusted agency shall be guided by the provisions of these rules in the procurements relating to the assignment;
 - b. procurement of items which are required to be canalized through agencies specified by the Government provided that, if such agencies express their inability to supply the items in writing, the procurement of such items shall be guided by these rules.
- 1.1.2.4 Corporations (except municipal corporations) and Financial Institutions fully or partly owned by the Royal Government, Trust Funds, and Welfare Funds may adopt separate rules and regulations for the management of their procurements, provided such rules are within the broad principles of these rules and are approved by their respective Boards of Directors/Trustees. In the absence of such separate rules and regulations, procurements conducted by these bodies shall be governed by the rules under this Procurement Rules & Regulations.

1.1.2.5 Unless the context indicates otherwise, the singular shall include plural and the masculine shall include feminine in these rules.

1.1.3 Definitions

1.1.3.1 Unless the contents are repugnant to the context, the following words and phrases shall be understood as defined hereunder:

- (1) Administrative Sanction: the formal acceptance of the works proposal by the competent authority of the Government Agency, for which preliminary estimate along with drawings shall be submitted. The Administrative Sanction shall lapse if the work is not commenced within a period of twelve months.
- (2) Award of Contract: the decision of the procuring agency to enter into a contract with a supplier, service provider or contractor for delivery of specified items, services or execution of works.
- (3) Bid: an offer to supply goods, services or execution of works made in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in a document inviting such offers. The term "tender" is synonymous with the term "bid".
- (4) Bid Security: a security, serving as a guarantee that the bid shall remain valid until the contract is awarded or until the expiry of a specific period, delivered along with the bid by a bidder in a form and in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in the document inviting the bid. The terms "bid security", "bid bond", "bid guarantee", and "earnest money" are synonymous in terms of their effect and purpose.
- (5) Bidder: an eligible individual or legal entity that participates in a competitive procedure defined by this Procurement Rules & Regulations.
- (6) Bidding Documents: the set of documents sold or issued by the intending employer/purchaser/procuring agency to potential bidders in which the specifications, terms and conditions of the proposed procurement are prescribed. The terms "bidding documents", "tender documents" and "bid documents" are synonymous.
- (7) Bill of Quantities: summary of the units and unit prices of the items proposed under the contract.
- (8) Bhutan Schedule of Rates (BSR): A publication delivered by the Standard and Quality Control Authority (SQCA) of the Ministry of Works and Human Settlement prescribing rates for works by individual component, the quality, quantity, and scope of which is governed by the Specifications for Building and Road Works "SBRW". It is designed primarily as a tool for estimation of construction project costs.
- (9) Client: See employer.
- (10) Competent Authority: An authority or the Government body who/which has power to exercise or to discharge any duty or function under the act/rules or the mandate made there under or under this procurement rules.
- (11) Competitive bidding: the process whereby bidders compete for the supply of goods, services or execution of works under one of the procurement procedures set out in these rules.

- (12) Conclusion of Contract: the point at which a contract for the supply of goods, services or execution of works is considered to be legally binding in accordance with the relevant laws of the Kingdom.
- (13) Consultant: an individual or a legal entity entering into a contract to provide consultancy services.
- (14) Consultancy Services: expert services provided by the contractor based on specialized expertise and skills as to prepare and implement a project, conduct training, provide technical assistance, conduct a research and analysis, work out a design, and supervise the contract execution.
- (15) Contract: a formal agreement in writing entered into between the procuring agency and the supplier, service provider or the contractor on acceptable terms and conditions and which are in compliance with all the relevant provisions of the laws of the Kingdom. The term "contract" will also include "framework contract".
- (16) Contractor: an individual or a legal entity entering into a contract to execute works, supplies or services.
- (17) Development Partner/Donor: an individual, country, institution, fund, organisation, non-governmental organisation or financial institution which takes part in the socioeconomic development process of Bhutan by financing or co-financing through grants, loans or services.
- (18) Eligible bidder: Is a bidder who is (i) authorized to conduct business in Bhutan, (ii) complies with clause 5.1.4, and (iii) otherwise complies with the requirements of the bidding documents.
- (19) Employer: the Government agency, which enters into a contract with a supplier, service provider or contractor for procurement of goods, services or execution of works for the Government. The terms "procuring agency" "procuring entity", "client", " purchaser" and "employer" are synonymous.
- (20) Engineer: a person or a consulting firm appointed by the employer to act as an engineer for the purposes of the contract and named as such in the special conditions of the contract.
- (21) Framework Contract: a contract awarded in accordance with the procurement rules set out in the Procurement Rules & Regulations, whereby the Procuring Agency and the Supplier agree to the terms and conditions, in particular the price, which shall apply to the supply of designated materials over a given period of time, which shall not exceed one (1) year.
- (22) Goods: any object in solid, liquid or gaseous form that has an economic utility or value, which can be exchanged or traded.
- (23) Government agency: an entity of the Government whose source of funding is the Government.
- (24) Historical documents: supporting documents such as the Trade License, CDB License, Tax Clearance certificate and any other such documents as required by the SBDs for the purpose of evaluation of a bid.
- (25) Invitation for bids: a document published or notified by the procuring agency, which informs the potential bidders that it intends to procure goods, services and/or works.
- (26) Labour and Material Coefficients: a document published by the Standard and Quality Control Authority of the Ministry of Works and Human Settlement, which provides an analysis and breakdown of rates determined in the BSR. The purpose of this document is to provide an understanding of how the rates are calculated.

- (27) Local Community: an association of local residents which shall include a chairman, treasurer, secretary, and has a memorandum of understanding which has the consensus of the entire community and endorsed by the Gewog Yargay Tshogchung (GYT) or Dzongkhag Yargay Tshogchung (DYT).
- (28) Lowest evaluated bid: the bid which offers the best value for money, evaluated on the basis of various objective criteria set out in the bidding document. It does not necessarily mean the “lowest quoted price”.
- (29) Procurement: the purchase of goods, services or the engagement of contractors for execution of works by procuring agencies.
- (30) Procurement procedure: process of procuring goods, services and execution of works as outlined in this Rules & Regulations.

Chapter II

Registration & Qualification of Bidders

2.1 Registration System

2.1.1 General

- 2.1.1.1 The purpose of the Registration system is to limit the waste of time caused by the repeated qualification of bidders for similar procurements and to ensure a continued pool of suitably qualified suppliers/contractors. It is a system of general pre-qualification signifying the capability of a bidder to handle a type and volume of contract and is not limited to a particular contract.
- 2.1.1.2 Proof of enrolment in an authorised and properly constituted Registration system shall constitute a presumption of overall suitability of a bidder to participate in a public procurement procedure.
- 2.1.1.3 Bidders who are not registered in accordance with the procedures set out in this chapter shall not benefit from such a presumption of suitability and will be required to demonstrate their qualifications to the concerned registering authority prior to participating in the procurement procedure.
- 2.1.1.4 A procedure for Registration shall be based on the provisions of this Chapter.
- 2.1.1.5 The Registering Authority shall protect the technical or trade secrets of the applicants disclosed during the process of registration.

2.1.2 Creation of Registration Systems

- 2.1.2.1 Appropriate technical authorities of the relevant Sectors, as may be identified by the Government from time to time, may establish Lists of Registered Suppliers/Contractors/Consultants, hereinafter called Registers.
- 2.1.2.2 Such an authority shall create a Committee comprising of appropriately qualified members known for their competence in the sector, from across the various organizations. The Committee shall deliberate and determine the general requirements it considers relevant and necessary for an applicant to possess in order to and demonstrate the applicant's capability to service contracts in the sector.
- 2.1.2.3 Once the selection and classification criteria have been finalised, the opening of the Register shall be notified by the authority in a mass circulated newspaper and/or by announcements through the available media. The notification shall also be displayed on the notice board of the authority.
- 2.1.2.4 By opening the Register and announcing it to the public, the intending suppliers, consultants and contractors shall be offered an opportunity for a specified time initially to apply for admission in the Register. Such applications shall be in writing and complete with all necessary information and supporting documents as prescribed by the authority.

- 2.1.2.5 The written application may be followed by further discussions between the applicants and the authorised representatives of the authority to clarify and/or supplement the information contained therein.
- 2.1.2.6 The evaluation of suitability of the applicants which shall be made in accordance with the selection criteria set out in 2.1.3 shall be conducted and completed by the appropriately qualified officers of the Authority within a specified period announced in the notification.
- 2.1.2.7 Following evaluation, the Authority shall establish a list of Registered Suppliers, Consultants or Contractors as the case may be. The list shall be kept at the relevant Government Agency where it may be consulted by any interested party upon request. Upon registration a certification will be issued to the successful applicant valid for the period specified by the competent Authority.
- 2.1.2.8 Requests for admission to the Register may thereafter be made at any time, but shall only be reviewed on a quarterly basis.
- 2.1.2.9 Where a Register provides for a system of classification, registered Suppliers, Consultants or Contractors may, at any time, apply in writing for re-classification in order to reflect their changed capabilities. The re-classification will be done in accordance with the relevant provisions of this chapter.

2.1.3 Qualification Criteria for Bidders

- 2.1.3.1 In selecting competent bidders in a procurement procedure, procuring authorities shall firstly ensure where required by the SBD that the bidders are registered with appropriate authority. Further the procuring authority may apply, as appropriate, any or all of the permitted selection criteria listed below;
- i. General suitability
- 2.1.3.2 The credentials of an applicant shall be established first. It may require the party to furnish evidence establishing that none of the conditions enlisted under clause 2.1.4.1 applies to it. The evidence can be submitted by whatever means that are considered appropriate for the country of establishment of the applicant. Such evidence may include, but is not limited to:
- a. Extracts from a judicial record or equivalent official document issued by a competent judicial or administrative authority;
 - b. Solemn declarations made by the bidders concerned before a judicial or administrative authority designated for such purposes.
- ii. Financial Capacity
- 2.1.3.3 The Procuring Agency may require the parties to furnish evidence of their financial and economic capacity. Evidence of such capacity may be:
- a. The audited balance sheets for the last three (3) years by a recognized firm or Chartered Accountants/Certified Accountants/Certified Public Accountant or extracts there from;
 - b. A certified statement of the previous five (5) years' overall turnover and the turnover in respect of works, supplies or services;
 - c. A Tax clearance certificate from the Department of Revenue and Customs.

iii. Technical Ability

2.1.3.4

Evidence of the party's technical ability may be furnished by any of the following means:

- a. The educational and professional qualifications of the managerial and supervisory staff of the party, and in particular, those of the person or persons responsible for carrying out the assignments;
- b. In the case of works – a list of all works carried out over the last three to five (3-5) years, together with certificates of satisfactory execution for the most important works, issued by previous clients. Such certificates shall indicate the value, date and site of works and shall specify whether they were properly completed;
- c. In the case of goods or services – a list of principal deliveries effected or services provided in the past three (3) years, with the sums, dates and purchasers involved. Such lists shall be evidenced by certificates issued or countersigned by the procuring authority;
- d. A description of the party's technical facilities, including reference to the tool, plant and technical equipment available.

2.1.4 Exclusion of Bidders

2.1.4.1

A bidder shall be excluded from participating in a procurement procedure under the following circumstances:

- a. He is insolvent or is in receivership or is a bankrupt or is in the process of being wound up; or have entered into an arrangement with creditors; or
- b. His affairs are being administered by a court, judicial officer or by an appointed liquidator; or
- c. He has suspended business; or is in any analogous situation arising from similar procedures under the laws and regulations of the country of establishment; or
- d. He has been found guilty of professional misconduct by a recognised tribunal or professional body; or
- e. He has not fulfilled obligations with regard to the payment of taxes, social security or other payments due in accordance with the laws of the country in which he is established or of the Kingdom of Bhutan; or
- f. He is debarred from participation in public procurements by any competent authority as per law.

2.2.1 Pre-Qualification

2.2.1.1

In the case of large or complex procurements, or in any circumstances in which the high costs of preparing detailed bids could discourage competition, the procuring entity may engage in pre-qualification proceedings with a view to identifying, prior to the submission of tenders, suppliers and contractors that are qualified.

2.2.1.2

Pre-qualification shall be based entirely upon the capability and resources of prospective bidders to perform the particular contract satisfactorily, taking into

- account the permitted qualification criteria detailed in 2.1.3 above.
- 2.2.1.3 The invitation to pre-qualify for bidding on specific contracts or groups of similar contracts shall be advertised and notified in accordance with 5.1.2.
- 2.2.1.4 The procuring entity shall provide to those who respond to the invitation a set of pre-qualification documents setting out the scope of the contract and a clear statement of the requirements for qualification.
- 2.2.1.5 The pre-qualification documents shall include, at a minimum:
- a. Instructions for preparing and submitting pre-qualification applications;
 - b. a summary of the principal required terms and conditions of the procurement contract to be entered into as a result of the procurement procedure;
 - c. any documentary evidence or other information that must be submitted by suppliers or contractors to demonstrate their qualifications;
 - d. the manner and place for the submission of applications to pre-qualify and the deadline for the submission, expressed as a specific date and time and allowing sufficient time for suppliers or contractors to prepare and submit their applications, taking into account the reasonable needs of the procuring entity; such date not to be less than twenty (20) days.
- 2.2.1.6 The procuring entity shall make a decision with respect to the qualifications of each supplier or contractor submitting an application to pre-qualify. In reaching that decision, the procuring entity shall apply only the criteria set forth in the pre-qualification documents.
- 2.2.1.7 The procuring entity shall promptly notify each supplier or contractor submitting an application to pre-qualify whether or not it has been pre-qualified. Only suppliers or contractors that have been pre-qualified are entitled to participate further in the procurement procedure.
- 2.2.1.8 The procuring entity shall upon request communicate to suppliers or contractors that have not been pre-qualified the grounds for their failure to pre-qualify.
- 2.2.1.9 At the time of the award of the contract, the procuring entity may require a supplier or contractor that has been pre-qualified to confirm the information provided in the submission for pre-qualification. The award may be denied to a bidder that is judged to no longer have the capability or resources to successfully perform the contract.

2.3.1 Registration of Bidders for Works and Consultancy Services

- 2.3.1.1 The Construction Development Board (CDB) shall be the competent authority of the Government to establish and maintain the List of Registered Contractors and Consultants for Works as specified under clause 2.1.2.1. It shall issue guidelines on registration of contractors and consultants for works from time to time to facilitate efficient functioning and effective implementation of works in the best interest of the Government.
- 2.3.1.2 Registration with the CDB and possession of a valid CDB certificate shall, in accordance with clause 2.1.1.2, constitute a presumption of overall suitability of a bidder to participate in a public procurement procedure in respect of the classification for which he has been registered.

2.3.1.3

Bidders who are not registered with the (CDB) and are not in possession of a valid CDB certificate shall not benefit from such a presumption of suitability and will be required to demonstrate their qualifications to participate in the procurement procedure. The CDB shall make the determination by no later than 1 month of the date the request is made by the bidder.

2.3.1.4

The List of Registered Contractors and consultants including Architects and Engineers is formally established by the CDB and shall be updated from time to time. The List of Registered Contractors including Architects and Engineers shall be made available in the web site of CDB.

2.3.1.5

Admission to the List of Registered Contractors and consultants including Architects and Engineers shall be made by written application pursuant to the procedure set out in the Manual of the Construction Development Board. Potential bidders may seek admission to the Register at any time by written request to the appropriate authority.

2.3.1.6

The grounds for exclusion from the Register will be the grounds enumerated in 2.1.4 above.

2.4 Information on Rejection of Bid

2.4.1.1

On written request from the party concerned, the contracting authority shall as quickly as possible inform any unsuccessful bidder of the reasons for the rejection of his application for pre-qualification or registration.

2.4.1.2

The time taken may in no circumstances exceed fifteen (15) working days from receipt of the written request.

Chapter – III

Organisation of Procurement

3.1 Tender Committee

3.1.1 Levels and Composition

3.1.1.1

A Tender Committee of an appropriate level shall be constituted by the Head of the Procuring Agency to ensure that the procedures of this Procurement Rules & Regulations have been complied with in all cases of procurements where the estimated value of the contract exceeds the threshold limits prescribed for the Limited Enquiry method.

In constituting a Tender Committee, the Procuring Agency shall ensure that no members of the Tender Committee have any Conflict of Interest with any of the participating Bidders.

3.1.1.2

It is mandatory for all the members of the tender committee to attend the meetings and if absences, temporary or permanent are inevitable, officers of appropriate level should be appointed in writing to replace the designated member.

3.1.1.3

The procurement procedures shall be executed and contracts awarded by the head of the Procuring Agency.. The Head of the Procuring Agency shall be responsible for all decisions made in accordance with the provisions of this Procurement Rules & Regulations.

3.1.1.4

The following shall be the levels of Tender Committees:

i. Gewog Tender Committee

- a. The Gewog Tender Committee shall be composed of:
 - i. The Gup as the chairperson;
 - ii. The Gewog Administrative Officer (GAO);
 - iii. The Gewog Accountant or the Dzongkhag Finance Section head as the case may be;
 - iv. Engineer representative from the Dzongkhag;
 - v. The relevant field staff or the Dzongkhag relevant sector head as the case may be; and
 - vi. Two (2) elected GYT members other than the Gup for a period of one (1) year.
- b. The Gewog Tender Committee shall ensure that the procedures of this Procurement Rules & Regulations have been complied with in the case of procurements whose estimated values are higher than the threshold levels prescribed for Limited Enquiry method and:
 - i. Up to Nu.1 (one) million in the case of goods;
 - ii. Up to Nu.2 (two) million in the case of works.

3.1.2 Responsibilities and Powers

3.1.2.1

Before each sitting, the Chairperson and each of the members of a Tender Committee shall render the following certificate;

“Declared that none of my close relatives (father, mother, brother, sister, spouse and own children) have taken part in the competitive bidding and that I do not have any direct interest in any of the parties participating in the bidding.”

3.1.2.2

The primary function of the Tender Committee shall be, at the appropriate time, to satisfy itself that the procurement procedure has been properly observed by the procuring agency, notably that:

- a. The bidding documents have been prepared and issued in accordance with this Procurement Rules & Regulations;
- b. The appropriate procedure has been properly identified and notified;
- c. The bidders have been given sufficient and equal time and opportunity for the submission of bids;
- d. No spouse or dependent of a Government servant who has authority over or is an employee of the particular office have participated in the competitive bidding;
- e. There have been no breaches of the provisions under the Procurement Rules & Regulations.

3.1.2.3

In addition, the Tender Committee shall:

- a. Ensure wherever necessary that an appropriate bid opening committee has been constituted chaired by one of its members. .
- b. Appoint the evaluation committee members who need not necessarily be from the procuring agency concerned but could also be from other departments and should not be less than three in number. The members of the tender committee shall not represent or be part of the evaluation committee. A member of the evaluation committee will make a presentation of the results to the tender committee to examine the evaluation and decide for award of work. Both the evaluation committee and the tender committee are responsible and accountable in case of disputes or mis-representation.
- c. Satisfy itself that the work of the evaluation committee has been carried out timely with due regard to the propriety and regularity of the procedure.

Proper minutes and records of the deliberations and decisions of the Tender Committee and the reasons for any decision or action shall be maintained.

3.1.2.5

No member of a Tender Committee shall communicate any information on the bid proceedings to any outside party.

3.1.2.6

For the completion of their tasks, members of the tender committee shall complete and sign the check list attached to this Procurement Rules & Regulations under annex PRR-2.

Chapter IV

Thresholds, Methods and Processes

4.1 Procurement Thresholds

4.1.1 Thresholds

- 4.1.1.1 The estimated value of contracts, including all applicable taxes and duties shall be used to determine the method of procurement to be adopted.
- 4.1.1.2 The threshold levels for application of proper competitive procurement method are as follows:

Type	Open Tender/Bidding	Limited Tender/Bidding	Limited Enquiry
Works	Above Nu.1,000,000	Above Nu.200,000 and up to Nu.1,000,000	Up to Nu.200,000
Goods & Consultancy Services	Above Nu.200,000	Above Nu.100, 000 and up to Nu. 200,000	Up to Nu.100,000

i. Revision of Threshold Values

- 4.1.1.3 The threshold values shall be reviewed from time to time and, if necessary, revised by the Ministry of Finance in relation to the consumer price index.

ii. Application of Threshold Values

- 4.1.1.4 Procurement of works, supplies or services shall not be split or based on unusual or peculiar methods of calculation with the purpose of avoiding the application of particular methods prescribed under clause 4.1.1.1 and 4.1.1.2.
- 4.1.1.5 The value of a work for the purposes of the thresholds shall take into account the total value of the estimated payments pertaining to the totality of the work, which taken as a whole, provide a functional and fully operational result.
- 4.1.1.6 In the case of supplies or services, the estimated value of the total supplies/services shall be taken into account for the purpose of the thresholds.
- 4.1.1.7 Notwithstanding the provisions under clause 4.1.1.4, a procuring agency may break up a work, supply or service assignment into separate lots or components for awarding to different contractors, suppliers or service providers. Under such circumstances, the total value of all such lots shall be taken into account for the purposes of the thresholds and determining the procurement method to be applied.

4.1.2 International Procurement

4.1.2.1

In the case of any of the procurement procedures prescribed in this Procurement Rules & Regulations, the procuring agency may seek offers and/or quotations and/or invite bids from individuals and legal entities from outside Bhutan when certain goods or the capacity to undertake certain works or services are not available in the country. In such cases, the Procuring Agency shall be guided by the Foreign Exchange Rules and Regulations issued by the Royal Monetary Authority.

4.1.2.2

International procurement may, but need not, be preferred where the estimated threshold value of the procurement falls in the ranges prescribed for the Open or Limited Tender/Bidding methods.

4.2 Procurement Methods

4.2.1 General

4.2.1.1

Subject to the conditions prescribed against each, public procurements shall be processed in one of the following methods:

- a. Open tender/bidding;
- b. Limited tender/bidding;
- c. Limited enquiry;
- b. Direct contracting;
- c. Framework contracting;

4.2.2 Open Tender/ Bidding Method

4.2.2.1

Open Tender/Bidding shall be the basic method of Government procurements and shall be applied unless there are circumstances, which justify the use of the other exceptional methods specified in 4.2.3 to 4.2.5.

4.2.2.2

Under this method, all contenders who are capable of providing the works, goods or services sought and are eligible for entering into a contract shall be given an equal opportunity of submitting bids following a notification. For works contracts, bidders registered with the CDB shall benefit from the presumption of suitability referred in 2.3.1.2.

4.2.3 Limited Tender/Bidding Method

4.2.3.1

Under this method, the number of bidders may be limited to a range between 3 and 5 individuals or companies who are capable of providing the works, goods, or services sought and who will be given an equal opportunity of submitting bids following a notification.

This method may be used under any of the following circumstances :

- a. The estimated value of goods, works or services does not exceed the threshold value as may be prescribed from time to time for this method under 4.1.1;
- b. The available time is insufficient (appropriately justified and properly documented) to follow the Open Tender/Bidding method but where it is still possible to seek competition without resorting to the Limited Enquiry or

Direct Contracting methods;

- c. Where a pre-qualification procedure has been adopted in accordance with 2.2.1.

4.2.3.2

The procuring agency shall send Invitation for bids to selected bidders capable of providing the goods, services, and/or works as set out in clause 4.2.3.1. However:

- a. In the case of works contracts under a or b in clause 4.2.3.1, the bidders invited to submit tenders shall be selected from among those bidders registered with the CDB and who have valid CDB certificate.
- b. In the case of supplies or services contracts under a or b in clause 4.2.3.1, the bidders invited to submit tenders shall, where such lists exist, be selected from among those bidders appearing on any Registered List created in accordance with clause 2.3.1.2.
- c. In the case under clause 4.2.3.1 (c), all pre-qualified bidders shall be invited to submit a tender.

4.2.3.3

The prices offered by the responsive bidders shall be compared for arriving at the lowest evaluated bid.

4.2.3.4

If the method fails to result in the award of a contract, the Limited Enquiry method may be used.

4.2.4 Limited Enquiry Method

4.2.4.1

This method allows the Procuring Agency to compare the prices solicited from at least three domestic companies or individuals and award the contract to one of them. This method may be used under either of the following circumstances:

- a. Where the estimated value of the works or goods does not exceed the threshold values as may be prescribed from time to time for this method under 4.1.1;
- b. In the absence of any or sufficient (less than three) number of bids in response to a Limited Bidding procedure carried out earlier.

4.2.4.2

The procuring agency shall send Invitation for bids to more than three domestic potential bidders.

4.2.4.3

Bids submitted by other suppliers or contractors who were not invited may also be considered.

4.2.4.4

If the method fails to result in the award of a contract, the Direct Contracting method may be used.

4.2.5 Direct Contracting Method

4.2.5.1

This method of procurement allows the procuring agency to negotiate the terms and conditions of its procurement directly with one or more bidder/s.

4.2.5.2

This method shall only be applied under any of the following circumstances:

- a. In the case of purchases up to a maximum of Nu 0.02 (point zero two) million for the purposes of the day to day administration.
- b. In the absence of at least three bids following the application of Limited Enquiry methods, provided the terms of bidding documents have not changed.
- c. Where, for technical reasons or for reasons connected with the protection of industrial property rights, the contract may be executed by only one supplier or contractor, provided that there is no suitable substitute;

- d. In the case of additional supplies which are intended as:
 - i. A partial replacement;
 - ii. For repair of equipment;
 - iii. Supplies in continuation of an existing procurement contract where a change of supplier would oblige the procuring agency to acquire material having different technical characteristics which would result in incompatibility or technical difficulty in operation and maintenance or disproportionate additional cost;
- e. In the case of Repeat Order for supplies previously procured through competitive bidding, where the value of the additional supplies do not exceed fifteen percent (15%) of the original contract;
- f. In the case of additional works provided that the value of the additional work shall not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the original contract amount, or the maximum threshold value for the use of Limited Tender whichever is lower. Additional works exceeding twenty percent (20%) of the original contract price, and subject to availability of budget within the same program, special approval must be sought from the competent authority.
- g. In so far as strictly necessary when, for reasons of extreme urgency brought about by events unforeseeable by the procuring agency, the minimum time limits involved in the other procurement methods cannot be followed;
- h. In the case of works in remote areas where potential bidders are not available after open tender and where the estimated value of the works does not exceed Nu.3M provided that the quoted/negotiated amount is within the estimate.

4.2.5.3

In this method:

- a. A quotation shall be invited from either one, or where possible, more suppliers or contractors indicating the specifications sought and terms and conditions of supply;
- b. A time limit as may be considered necessary may be given to the bidders to prepare and submit their bids as per mutual agreement.
- c. The offer/s which comply with the specifications, terms and conditions shall be considered to determine whether the price is consistent with the current market prices;
- b. Negotiations to bring down the prices may be carried out if the prices offered are deemed to be excessive or substantially in excess of the prevailing market prices.

4.2.6 Framework Contracting

4.2.6.1

This method of procurement may be used for the supply of designated supplies over a given period of time which shall not exceed one year. Under this method the procuring agency and the supplier agree the terms and conditions and in particular the price. While finalizing the contract, procurement procedures set out in this Procurement Rules & Regulations will apply to the award of the framework contract.

4.2.6.2

Supplies may be ordered under the contract at different intervals depending on the needs of the procuring agency without a requirement of further competitive bidding.

4.2.6.3

For the purpose of applying procurement procedures under this Procurement Rules & Regulations, the value to be taken into account is the total estimated annual value for all the supplies to be procured.

4.3 Procurement Processes

4.3.1 Application of Procurement Process

4.3.1.1

Procurements shall be conducted under any of the following processes:

- a. One Envelope Process;
- b. Two-Stage Process

i. One Envelope Process

4.3.1.2

Except for the cases defined under clause 4.3.1.3, the One Envelope Process shall be adopted in the procurement of works, goods and services.

ii. Two Stage Process

4.3.1.3

The Two-Stage Process may be adopted under the following conditions:

- a. In large and complex contracts where technically unequal proposals are likely to be encountered;
- b. Where the procuring agency is aware of its options in the market, but for a given set of performance requirements, there are two or more equally acceptable technical solutions available to it;
- c. Where the procuring agency is unable to set the specifications precisely in advance and needs to obtain the input from experienced bidders in order to finalize the scope of work and set the specifications in a way, which guarantees the best and most appropriate outcome.

The two stage process shall be conducted as follows:

- a. In the first stage of the Process, bidders shall be invited to submit their Technical Proposals only. As a part of the Technical Proposal, the bidders shall be asked to submit documentary evidence in a format to be prescribed in the Instructions to Bidders, establishing the bidder's qualifications to perform the contract if his bid is accepted.
- b. The Technical Proposals shall be reviewed to determine their responsiveness to the requirements.
- c. During the review of Technical Proposals, the Procuring Agency shall determine to its satisfaction whether the bidders are qualified to perform the contract satisfactorily. An affirmative determination shall be a pre-requisite for further consideration of the Technical Proposal. A Negative determination shall result in the disqualification of the bid.
- d. The un-priced substantially responsive Technical Proposals shall be examined and discussed with the bidders to arrive at a most suitable technical solution.
- e. Following discussions between the Procuring Agency and the responsive bidders, the bidders may revise or adjust their proposals to better meet the Procuring Agency's requirements. The Technical Proposals of bidders who are unable or unwilling to amend their proposals so as to conform to the agreed technical standard may be rejected by the Procuring Agency.

- f. In the second stage, the responsive bidders shall be provided the addenda of the agreed technical changes which shall form part of the technical specifications based on which technical proposal will be submitted and requested to submit their revised Technical Proposals in conformity with the technical solution as agreed upon and their Financial Proposals along with the required Bid Security. Bidders shall be given sufficient time to calculate the prices to be offered.
- g. At a date and time fixed by the Procuring Agency and advised to the bidders, the revised Technical Proposals and the Financial Proposals shall be opened in public in accordance with the provisions under 5.3.5 of Chapter V.
- h. The revised Technical Proposals and the Financial Proposals shall be evaluated in accordance with the provisions under 5.4 of Chapter V. Following verification by the Tender Committee of the procedure by way of signed checklist, the award of contract shall be made to the lowest evaluated bidder.

Chapter V

The Bidding Process & Documents

5.1 Essentials of the Bidding Process

5.1.1 General

5.1.1.1

In order to achieve the objectives of public procurements as prescribed under Rule 3.2.3 of the Financial Management Manual, it is essential that as far as practicable all public procurements be conducted through an open and fair competitive bidding process. Depending on the urgency, volume and value of the procurement and the method adopted for procurement, the bidding process can vary from making of reasonable enquiries in the local market to observation of elaborate procedural requirements in the cases of open or international procurements. The steps required to be followed and the documentation prescribed under this chapter is aimed mostly to cover the bidding process under the Open Tender Bidding method. Reasonably simplified form of these shall however be followed in the other procurement methods too.

5.1.1.2

The procuring agency shall prepare bidding documents specific to the goods, works or services to be procured. The applicable standard bidding documents shall be used with minimum changes as necessary to address project specific conditions. Reasons for changes, if any, shall be recorded and seek approval from the Head of the Procuring Agency.

5.1.1.3

The agency shall ensure that Technical and Administrative sanction are obtained and funds including any foreign exchange requirement is secured for works, goods services prior to;

- a. Tendering or award of additional works;
- b. Adopting any deviations from the approved drawings, designs and specifications.

5.1.1.4

The Procuring Agency shall authenticate all financial guarantees submitted by the bidders with the respective financial institutions for their validity.

5.1.1.5

If the employer suspects that a bidder has directly or through an agent engaged in corrupt, fraudulent, collusive, coercive or obstructive practices in competing for or in executing a contract, the employer shall inform the ACC or any other Competent Authority of such suspicions.

5.1.2 Invitation for Bids

5.1.2.1

Depending on the method chosen for procurement, invitations for bids shall be notified to the bidders as follows:

- a. In the Open Tender Bidding method, the notification for invitation of bids shall be published in a mass circulated newspaper and where applicable/feasible announced over the website, national radio, TV and other mass media. In addition, the notification shall be displayed on the notice board of the procuring agency concerned

- b. In the Limited Bidding method, the invitations for bids shall be sent by registered post or any other means of delivery, as long as it is ensured that the documents are dispatched at the same time to the potential bidders selected by the procuring agency. Notice shall not be given to one potential bidder in advance of notification to others.
- c. In the Limited Enquiry or Direct Contracting methods, the procuring agency may directly approach the bidder/s from whom it intends to solicit quotations.

5.1.2.2

The notification shall include reference to:

- a. The identity of the Procuring agency;
- b. A summary of the assignment under bid;
- c. Period for execution of assignment;
- d. Address for obtaining the bidding documents, further information and submission of bids;
- e. Cost of bidding documents where applicable;
- f. Procedural requirements.
- g. Final date and time for submission of bids.

5.1.3 Minimum Time limits for Submission of Bids

5.1.3.1

The time limits for submission of bids shall be reasonable, taking into account the nature of goods, services or works to be procured, including the time necessary for site visits where appropriate, and give adequate and equal time for all bidders to prepare their bids. The following minimum time limits shall be observed:

Minimum Time Limits	Open Bidding	Limited Bidding	Limited Enquiry	Direct Contracting
From the Day the documents are made available	30 days	14 days	5 days	By mutual agreement

5.1.3.2

Calculation of the relevant time limits shall commence from the day the documents are made available and shall be made available till a day prior to last day of submission. The agency shall upload the bidding documents in their website. If the documents are not available in the website, then the agency shall ensure the availability of documents during working hours for the entire period of sale of the documents.

5.1.3.3

In case of re-tender, following Open Bidding, the time limit applicable for Limited Bidding shall be observed.

5.1.3.3

The time limits for receipt of tenders in an Open Bidding procedure or a Limited Bidding procedure may, subject to clause 5.3.7.6, be reduced by 5 days where the procuring agency offers unrestricted and full direct access by electronic means to the contract documents and any supplementary documents from the date of notification in accordance with clause 5.1.1.1, specifying in the text of the notice the internet address at which this documentation is accessible.

5.1.4 Eligibility of Bidders

5.1.4.1

The Procuring agency shall ensure that:

- a. A bidder, (including all members of a joint venture/partnership and all sub-contractors of the bidder) is not affiliated with a firm or entity which has:
 - i. Provided consulting services during the preparatory stages of the assignment or of the project of which the assignment forms a part, or
 - ii. Been hired or is proposed to be hired as Engineer for the contract.
- b. No spouse or dependent of a Public servant shall be allowed to participate in supply of goods and services to the particular office where the civil servant is employed or where the Public servant has an authority over.

5.1.5 Clarification of Bidding Documents

5.1.5.1

The bidders shall not be allowed to seek any clarifications on the bidding documents in person. A clause shall be incorporated in the Instructions to Bidders prescribing the process of seeking any clarification on the Bidding Documents. Such a clause shall normally instruct that:

- a. A prospective bidder requiring any clarification of the bidding document may notify the same to the Procuring Agency in writing or by cable (including facsimile and telex) so as to be received by the Procuring Agency no later than a predetermined number of days prior to the deadline for submission of the bids;
- b. The Procuring Agency shall respond to such requests for clarification received by it within the prescribed period. Copies of the Procuring Agency's response shall be forwarded to all purchasers of the bidding documents, including a description of the enquiry without disclosing the name of the bidders seeking clarification. Any changes shall be affected by issuing amendments; and
- c. Pre-bid meeting shall be conducted only if strictly necessary and as approved by the head of the Procuring Agency to clarify doubts and concerns of the bidders prior to submission of bids. Minutes of the pre bid meeting shall be circulated to all bidders that have purchased bidding documents.

5.1.6 Amendment of Bidding Documents

5.1.6.1

A Procuring Agency shall reserve the right to amend or modify the bidding documents for any reasons by issue of addendum either in its own initiative or in response to a clarification request from a prospective bidder any time prior to the deadline for submission of bids. A clause to this effect shall be incorporated in the bidding documents. The clause shall specify that:

- a. Any addendum thus issued shall be part of the bidding documents and shall be binding on the prospective bidders;
- b. The addendum shall be communicated in writing or by cable (including facsimile and telex) to all prospective bidders who have purchased or received the bidding documents, and who shall confirm receipt thereof before bid opening;
- c. The Procuring Agency may, at its discretion, extend the deadline for submission of bids to allow the prospective bidders reasonable time for taking the addendum into account in preparation of their bids.

5.1.7 Submission of Bids

5.1.7.1 Bidders shall be advised on the latest date, time and place by which the bids would have to be submitted. The procuring agency shall reserve the right to extend the last date of submission of bids if necessary.

5.1.7.2 Bidders shall be advised on the manner of submission of bids as follows:

- a. The bids shall be delivered by hand or by registered post in sealed envelopes to the appropriate addressee and shall be marked "Confidential". A "sealed envelope" shall mean that:
 - i. A bid shall be contained in an inner envelope sealed with adhesive or other sealant, which will prevent re-opening;
 - ii. The inner envelope shall be signed across the seal. The name of the bidder shall be written on the inner envelope.
 - iii. The inner envelope shall be placed inside a further outer envelope similarly sealed. On this outer envelope, only the addressee, the words "Confidential", and any other relevant information in accordance with the bidding documents shall appear.

5.1.7.3 In case, the bids are required to be submitted in more than one copy, the specific number of copies to be submitted shall be mentioned in the bidding documents. The bidders shall be advised in such cases to mark the outer envelope of the original document as "ORIGINAL" and the envelopes of the others as "COPY". The bid document marked as "ORIGINAL" shall be opened in presence of the bidder and retained by the Procuring Agency in safe custody. The evaluators for evaluation purpose shall use the document marked "COPY". In case of discrepancy the original copy shall be referred and in case of any dispute regarding the bid document, the original shall prevail.

5.1.7.4 The bids shall be complete with both the technical details as well as the financial bid and the bid shall be submitted in a single sealed envelope.

5.1.7.5 In the Two-Stage Process, the bidders shall be advised to submit only the technical proposal in the first stage. In the second stage, the bidders shall be requested to submit both their technical proposals as modified and agreed with the Procuring Agency and the financial proposals based on the modified technical proposal simultaneously in two separate sealed envelopes.

5.1.8 Bid Validity

5.1.8.1 The bid validity period should normally be sixty (60) days from the date of bid closing. The procuring agency may however prescribe a realistic bid validity period taking into consideration the time that would be required to complete the processes of bid evaluation and award of Contract.

5.1.8.2 If the procuring agency sees that it is not possible to complete the bid evaluation and award of contract within the given period due to reasons beyond its reasonable control, it may solicit bidder's consent to an extension of the bid validity period. Under such circumstances:

- a. The request and the responses thereto shall be made in writing or by fax to all participating bidders;
- b. A bidder agreeing to the extension request shall also agree to an extension of the validity of the bid security. The period of the validity of the bid securities shall be suitably extended accordingly. Such a bidder shall not be required to or permitted to modify its bid.
- c. A bidder may refuse the request to extend the bid validity which would lead to his disqualification without forfeiting his bid security. In such a case the bid shall not be further considered for evaluation and award.

5.1.9 Bid Security

5.1.9.1

The procuring agency shall instruct bidders to furnish a bid security or earnest money along with the bids. The amount of bid security shall be prescribed at a range between one percent (1%) and two percent (2%) of the bid price.

5.1.9.2

Subject to the limits on the amount of bid security mentioned under clause 5.1.9.1, the procuring agency may prescribe the amount of bid security as a fixed sum calculated as a percentage of the total estimated cost.

5.1.9.3

The bid security shall be denominated in the currency of the bid and shall be in one of the following forms:

- a. Unconditional Guarantee issued by a reputed Financial Institution acceptable to the procuring agency in the form provided in the bidding documents or any other form satisfactory to the procuring agency;
- b. Banker's cheque/Cash warrant;
- c. Demand draft.

5.1.9.4

In the case of 5.1.9.3 a., the guarantee shall be valid for thirty (30) days beyond the validity of the bid.

5.1.9.5

The bid security of the unsuccessful bidders shall be discharged/returned to them as promptly as possible upon award of Contract, but in any event not later than thirty30 days after the expiration of the period of bid validity prescribed by the procuring agency.

5.1.9.6

The bid security of the successful bidder shall be returned upon the bidder's executing the Contract and furnishing the performance security where it is prescribed.

5.1.9.7

The bid security may be forfeited:

- a. If a bidder withdraws its bid during the period of bid validity specified by the bidder; or
- b. If a bidder does not accept the arithmetical corrections of its bid price, or
- c. In the case of a successful bidder, if the bidder fails
 - i. To sign the Contract within the prescribed time; or
 - ii. To furnish the performance security within the prescribed time.

5.1.10 Performance Security

- 5.1.10.1 The Procuring agency shall require a supplier/contractor to submit a Performance Security, within fifteen 15 working days after the notice of award, but always before the signing of the contract.
- 5.1.10.2 The Performance Security shall be valid until the successful completion of the assignment/works under the contract and for any extension thereto. It shall serve as a guarantee that the supplier or contractor will perform his contractual obligations under the contract.
- 5.1.10.3 The Performance Security shall be denominated in the currency of the bid. It shall be in one of the following forms:
- a. Unconditional Guarantee issued by a reputed Financial Institution acceptable to the procuring agency in the form provided in the bidding documents or any other form satisfactory to the procuring agency;
 - b. Banker's cheque/Cash warrant;
 - c. Demand draft Account Payee.
- 5.1.10.4 Generally, the amount of Performance Security shall be ten percent (10%) of the contract amount.
- 5.1.10.5 In the case of works, the performance security shall be discharged and returned to the contractor within fourteen (14) days of the completion of the assignment/successful handing over of the works.
- 5.1.10.6 In the case of supplies, the performance security shall be discharged and returned to the supplier upon expiration of the warranty period. If the supplier fails to remedy any reported defect within the Warranty Period, the Procurement Agency shall be entitled to either encash or to remedy the defect at the expense of the supplier.

5.1.11 Retention Money/Security Deposit

- 5.1.11.1 A Procuring Agency shall provide for retaining a part of the amounts due to a contractor till the end of the Defects Liability period which shall be a minimum of twelve (12) months. The procuring agency may prescribe a realistic defect liability period based on the type and complexity of the project which is defined in the bidding documents and contract agreement.
- 5.1.11.2 The amount of Retention Money shall be ten percent (10%) of the payments due to the contractor.
- 5.1.11.3 The Retention Money shall be deducted from the amounts payable to the contractor in accordance with the progress of the assignment.
- 5.1.11.4 The Retention Money or part thereof may be returned to the contractor on completion of the assignment under the contract and in case of contracts of duration more than 12 months when fifty percent (50 %) of the work is complete, against his submission of an unconditional guarantee issued by a reputed financial institution and acceptable to the Procuring Agency. Such a guarantee shall be valid until the issue of a No Defects Liability Certificate.

5.1.11.5 If the contractor fails to remedy any reported defect within the Defects Liability Period, the Procuring Agency shall withhold the payment or realise claims from the guarantee, of an amount, which in the opinion of the Procuring Agency; represent the cost of the defects to be remedied.

5.1.11.6 Subject to the provisions under clause 5.1.11.5, the Retention Money or the balance of it shall be discharged and returned to the contractor within 14 days of the issue of the No Defects Liability Certificate.

5.1.12 Advances & Securities in Works Contracts

i. Mobilisation Advance

5.1.12.1 A Procuring Agency may provide for payment of interest free Mobilisation Advance in respect of a works contract on submission of the required Performance Security and an unconditional bank guarantee for an equivalent amount of the Mobilisation Advance by the Contractor.

5.1.12.2 The provision for Mobilisation Advance shall be incorporated in the bidding documents along with the following conditions:

- a. The amount of Mobilisation advance shall be ten percent (10%) of the Contract Price;
- b. The contractor shall be required to furnish an unconditional guarantee issued by a reputed Financial Institution and acceptable to the Procuring Agency for an amount equal to the required advance payment. The guarantee shall remain valid till the advance is recovered in full;
- c. The advance payment shall be recoverable through percentage deduction from the interim progress payments. The percentage of deduction shall be fixed on pro-rata basis so that the full amount of Mobilisation Advance is recovered prior to the time when eighty percent (80%) of the Contract Price is certified for Interim Progress payment;
- d. The amount of the guarantee against Mobilisation Advance may be proportionately reduced with repayments made by the Contractor or with the progressive recovery of Mobilisation Advance from the Interim Progress payments.

ii. Secured Advance

5.1.12.3 A Procuring Agency may provide for payment of Secured advances to the contractor against the construction materials brought in the site by the contractor for incorporating in the works.

5.1.12.4 The provision for secured advances, if provided for, shall be incorporated in the bidding documents with the following conditions:

- a. The materials shall be in accordance with the specifications and shall not be in excess of the requirements;
- b. The materials shall be delivered at the site of the works, properly stored and protected against loss, damage or deterioration;
- c. A declaration shall be given by the contractor passing on the lien on the rights of the materials to the Procuring Agency.
- d. The amount of the secured advance shall not be more than seventy five percent (75%) of the cost of materials delivered at the site of works which shall be supported by the original invoices/bills from the suppliers. All materials imported from other countries shall be supported by Bhutan Sales Tax Receipts or customs clearance.

- e. The secured advance shall be recovered from the interim progress payments in the months in which these materials are used in the works.

5.1.13 Advances in Supplies Contracts

5.1.13.1

In case of purchase of goods following open tender, an interest free advance of ten percent (10%) may be considered. The advance will be secured against a bank guarantee and the terms of payment will be developed considering the advance payment made.

5.1.14 Advances in Consultancy Services Contracts

5.1.14.1

In case of consultancy contracts an interest free advance of ten percent (10%) may be provided. This advance will be secured against a bank guarantee and will be recovered against the stage payment for the consultancy.

5.2 Bidding Documents

5.2.1 General

5.2.1.1

The purpose of bidding documents shall be to help the bidder arrive at an informed decision on whether or not to submit a bid, and to enable bidders to prepare responsive bids. These documents shall explain in detail the requirements of the purchaser or employer regarding the assignment under bid, the instructions and conditions of bidding and the provisions of the proposed contract.

5.2.1.2

In the case of works, the procuring agency shall use the Bhutan Schedule of Rates (BSR) where applicable to establish an estimate for the cost of the works. Detailed estimates shall not be disclosed to the bidders. The bidders shall be expected to make their own estimates based on the specifications set out in the bidding documents; carry out site visits where necessary for calculation of estimates and submit the bids to the procuring agency.

5.2.2 Components

5.2.2.1

While there may be variation in the components of bidding documents, the following items shall, as far as possible, be included in the bidding documents, especially in the Open Bidding Method:

i. Invitation for Bids

5.2.2.2

An invitation shall be extended to the bidder to participate in the bidding in accordance with the provisions under 5.1.2. In the case of Open Tender Bidding method, a copy of the notification on the invitation to the bidders to participate in the bidding shall be provided in the bidding documents.

ii. Bidding Instructions

5.2.2.3

The bidding instructions shall state the bidder's responsibilities in the preparation and submission of his bid and explain how the bids will be handled once they are received. These shall, among others, contain provisions on:

- a. Scope of Bid and the expected time of completion of the assignment;
- b. Qualification or eligibility of bidder where applicable, including the requirement for production of licenses or certificates;
- c. The contents of the bidding documents and the procedure for preparation and submission;
- d. The method of clarification or amendment of the bids before submission;
- e. Documents accompanying the bids;
- f. The procedure for bid opening and evaluation (including preferential treatments to national bidders or goods of Bhutanese origin in International procurements);
- g. The contents of the proposed contract to be awarded to the successful bidder.

5.2.2.4

The methods and factors or criteria for evaluating and comparing bids shall be indicated in the bidding documents, where possible in descending order of importance. The factor and methods of giving preferential treatment to national bidders shall be explained especially in international bidding. The methods that will be used for making adjustments shall also be explained therein. The bid evaluation guidelines shall be the basis for evaluation of bids for civil works (attached in PRR-3).

5.2.2.5

The bidders shall be directed to quote their final all-inclusive net price including all incidental cost of carrying out the contract such as taxes, duties, royalties insurance etc. Tax exemptions and any offers of rebates/discount should also be declared.

5.2.2.6

The currency (ies) in which the price(s) are to be quoted in the bid shall be specified in the bidding instructions. Except for International procurements, the bid shall be quoted in Ngultrum only.

iii. Bid Form and Price Schedules

5.2.2.7

The Bid Form shall be the letter with which the bidder shall be required to submit his bid. A sample Bid Form shall be a part of the bid documents. The Bid Form shall contain the commitments of the bidder to comply with the provisions of the contract, abide by the bid validity date and provide the performance guarantee, if required, on award of contract. The bidder shall be instructed to submit the Bid Form with his bid.

5.2.2.8

A Price Schedule Form, to enable the bidder to indicate the description, quantity, unit and total prices of the goods as well as information on the country of origin, taxes and duties payable, shall be provided with the bid documents. In the case of the civil works, it shall be referred to as Priced Bill of Quantities and shall show the description and quantity of the works to be done and the corresponding unit and total prices. The priced Bill of Quantities shall have the provisions for rates to be filled in by the bidders both in figures and words. The rates in words shall be requested from the bidders if the rates are not computer typed.

The prospective bidders shall be instructed to include or mention in the Price Schedule Form about any discount that may be offered by him on the quoted prices. The presence of alternate bids, if any, shall also be mentioned in the Price Schedule Form.

iv. Form of Contract and Contract Conditions

5.2.2.10

A sample of the agreement that will be entered into between the parties shall form a part of the bid documents. Conditions setting out the rights and obligations of the parties and the terms and conditions under which the contract will be executed shall form an integral part of the contract. Most of these conditions shall be standard or general conditions, but there can be a number of special or particular conditions that may be peculiar to the particular contract.

v. Specifications/Scope of Works

5.2.2.11

The technical description of the goods, services or works under the bid shall be provided in the bid documents. The specifications or scope of works shall include all essential features or components desired in accordance to the Specifications for Building & Road Works issued by the Ministry of Works and Human Settlement or as specified by the Procuring Agency. It shall be stated that any non-conformity therewith would render the bid as nonresponsive.

5.2.2.12

In both the cases of goods and works, care shall be taken not to use any particular brand name or catalogue number that would tend to restrict competition or to favour any particular supplier. If the use of such brand names or catalogue number is unavoidable, the words "or their equivalent" should follow them.

5.2.2.13

Catalogues, brochures or other publications to provide additional information about the specifications may be called for.

vi. Integrity Pact

5.2.2.14

An Integrity Pact shall be signed as part of the bid documents. The Integrity Pact will come into effect once it is finalized and approved by the Competent Authority.

5.3 Processing of Bids

5.3.1 Transparency of Process

5.3.1.1

In accordance with the principle that public procurements shall be fair to all potential eligible bidders, the receiving, opening and recording of bids shall be carried out in a manner that ensures and reflects complete transparency and integrity.

5.3.1.2

It shall be the responsibility of the Bid Opening Committee to ensure that bids received prior to the time and date specified in the bidding documents are opened at the time, date and place of opening stipulated in the bidding documents.

5.3.2 Receipt of bids

5.3.2.1

Bids shall be received up to the time limit specified in the bidding documents or any extensions made to it.

5.3.2.2

Arrangements shall be made to receive the bids in a wooden or metal sealed box. A responsible person of the procuring agency may be assigned to receive the bids where large bid documents are involved.

5.3.2.3

Where a person is made responsible for receiving the bids, the procuring agency shall ensure that the submitted bids are safely and confidentially stored. The person made responsible for receiving the bids shall issue a receipt to the bidder dropping the bid and mark the bids received with serial numbers and enter the receipt of bids in a bid register. The following details shall be entered in the bid register on each occasion of receipt:

- a. Serial number of the bid received;
- b. The time and date the bid was received;

5.3.2.4

Where a bid/tender box is used, the box shall be fitted with a sealed lock and one officer shall be made responsible as guardian of the bid/tender box and the keys. As soon as the deadline for submission of the bids is reached, the guardian of the box shall seal the opening of the bid/tender box so that no more bids can be deposited. The sealed bid/tender box shall be opened in the presence of the Bid Opening Committee.

5.3.2.5

Lack of competition shall not be determined solely on the basis of the number of bidders. Even when only one bid is submitted, the bidding process may be considered valid, if the bid was satisfactorily advertised and prices are reasonable in comparison to market values. If none of the received bids are found responsive or the bid prices are abnormally high then the procuring agency may reject all bids and re-tender or follow the Limited Bidding procedure as applicable.

5.3.3 Confidentiality of bid documents and proceedings

5.3.3.1

Bid documents shall be treated with confidentiality at all times and kept under secured conditions until the opening of the bids by the Bid Opening Committee.

5.3.3.2

After the bid opening, the opened bid documents or the contents of the documents shall not be released to any unauthorized person/party.

5.3.3.3

Bid evaluation proceedings after the opening of bids shall be kept confidential until the award of contract is announced.

5.3.4 Bidders' participation in the Bid Opening

5.3.4.1

Bidders or their authorized representatives shall be allowed to attend the bid opening.

5.3.4.2 The bidders or their authorized representatives who choose to attend the bid opening shall sign the attendance sheet provided in the Record of Bid Opening (Form PRR – 1).

5.3.4.3 Bidders or their authorized representatives shall not be permitted to approach the members of the Bid Opening Committee or any of the officials, unless permitted by the Chairperson of the Bid Opening Committee.

5.3.5 Opening of the Bids

5.3.5.1 The head of the procuring agency shall appoint a Bid Opening Committee, which shall include one member of the Tender Committee who shall be the chairman of this Bid Opening Committee.

5.3.5.2 Bid opening shall take place on the same day immediately following the deadline for the submission of bids.

5.3.5.3 The bids shall be arranged so that the original and the copy/copies of the bid documents are kept together.

5.3.5.4 All members of the Bid Opening Committee including the Chairperson shall examine the conditions of the envelopes and shall sign on the envelopes. In the event that an envelope of the original bid document(s) is found to have been tampered with or opened, the Bid Opening Committee shall decide whether the bidding is to be cancelled or to proceed with the bid opening.

5.3.5.5 The bids shall be opened in full view of all participating parties and the contents shall be checked by the Bid Opening Committee against the requirements of the bidding documents. Envelopes marked "Withdrawal" shall be opened and read out first. Bids for which an acceptable notice of withdrawal has been submitted shall not be opened.

5.3.5.6 The Chairperson of the Bid Opening Committee shall publicly announce:

- a. The name of the bidder,
- b. The price offered,
- c. The presence or absence of bid security and its amount,
- d. Alternative bids, if any,
- e. Discounts if offered,
- f. Any modification,
- g. Response to amendments, if issued;
- h. Fulfillment of specific formal requirements as might have been prescribed in the bid documents.

5.3.5.7 These details shall be written on a notice board for the public to copy.

5.3.5.8 Any bid price, discount or alternative bid price, which is not announced and recorded, shall not be taken into account in bid evaluation. The bidders' representatives, if present in the meeting will be required to sign the Record of Bid Opening in Form PRR – 1.

5.3.5.9 The bid form including appendices to bid form, bill of quantities, price schedules, bid securities, any discounts offered, and any other important documents shall be initialed by all members of the Bid Opening Committee. All members of the Bid Opening Committee shall also initial all corrections and irregularities in bid documents.

5.3.5.10 The Record of Bid Opening in form PRR – 1 shall be prepared before closing of bid opening session. All members of the Bid Opening Committee shall sign the form.

5.3.5.11 Any bid received after the deadline or in incorrect form (such as by fax or cable) shall be rejected.

5.3.5.12 During the opening, bids shall be rejected only if the bid security is not in accordance with Instruction to Bidders (ITB), non-submission of complete Bid Forms with signature and non-signing of Bill of Quantities (BOQ).

5.3.5.13 For the completion of their tasks, members of the bid opening committee shall complete and sign the check list attached to this Procurement Rules & Regulations under annex PRR-2.

5.3.6 Storage of Bid Documents

5.3.6.1 All original copies of the bid documents, which are recorded in the bid opening, shall be kept in a secure place.

5.3.6.2 The copies of the original bid documents shall also be kept securely by the Procuring Agencies for future reference in case of any disputes with regard to the bid documents.

5.3.7 Rules applicable to Communication

5.3.7.1 All communication and information exchange referred to in this Rules and Regulations may be made in writing and sent by post or by electronic means in accordance with clauses 5.3.7.4, 5.3.7.5, and 5.3.7.6 or by a combination of those means, according to the choice of the procuring agency.

5.3.7.2 The means of communication chosen must be generally available and not restrict economic operators' access to the procurement procedure.

5.3.7.3 Communication and the exchange and storage of information shall be carried out in such a way as to ensure that the integrity of data and the confidentiality of tenders and other communications (including applications for pre-qualification, registration, clarifications etc), and that the procuring agencies examine the content of tenders only after the expiry of time limit set for submission of the bid.

5.3.7.4 The tools to be used for communicating by electronic means, as well as their technical characteristics, must be non-discriminatory, generally available and interoperable with the information and communication technology products in general use in Bhutan.

5.3.7.5 The following rules are applicable to devices used for the electronic transmission and receipt of tenders and other communications:

- a. information regarding the specifications necessary for the electronic submission of tenders and other communications, including encryption, shall be made available to interested parties with the bidding documents.

- b. procuring agencies may require that electronic tenders be accompanied by an electronic signature in conformity with the laws in force in Bhutan;
- c. where electronic forms of communication are used for the submission of tenders, bidders shall undertake to submit, before expiry of the time limit laid down for submission of tenders, the documents, certificates and declarations referred to in Chapter two of this Procurement Rules & Regulations if they do not exist in electronic format.

Electronic means of communication shall be permitted once the Ministry of Finance issues a notification to the effect that the conditions of clauses 5.3.7.4 and 5.3.7.5 are fulfilled.

5.4 Evaluation of Bids

5.4.1 Purpose

5.4.1.1

The purpose of bid evaluation process shall be to determine which of the bids received are responsive and thereafter compare the responsive bids against each other to select the lowest evaluated bid. If any license or clearance documents specified in the Bidding Document are found to be missing, the bidder shall be asked to submit it within a reasonable time specified by the Evaluation Committee before finalization of the Evaluation. Such communication shall be given in writing.

5.4.2 Responsive Bids

5.4.2.1

“Responsive bids” under these rules shall mean “substantially responsive bids”. Bids are substantially responsive where:

- a. The bidders fulfill the conditions of eligibility and qualification, if any laid down in the Bidding Document.
- b. The bids comply with the terms and conditions set out in the bidding documents, and are complete with the required information and duly filled in forms prescribed in the bidding documents;
- c. The bids respond to the terms, conditions and technical specifications detailed in the bidding documents without “material deviation or reservation”.

5.4.2.2

A material deviation or reservation is one:

- a. Which affects in any substantial way the scope, quality or performance of the assignment under bid; or
- b. Which limits in any substantial way and is inconsistent with the bidding documents, the Procurement Agency’s rights or the bidder’s obligations under the contract; or
- c. Whose rectification would affect unfairly the competitive position of other bidders presenting responsive bids.

5.4.3 Evaluation Criteria

- 5.4.3.1 The price offered by a bidder shall be only one of the criteria for evaluation of bids.
- 5.4.3.2 In addition to the price, the evaluation criteria shall include criteria from the following non-exclusive list, as appropriate and if laid down in the Standard Bidding Documents. Such criteria shall be expressed in monetary value where applicable.
- a. Preferential treatment for goods of Bhutanese origin, if laid down in the bidding documents;
 - b. Date of completion of works, services and/or delivery of goods;
 - c. Running cost and cost effectiveness;
 - d. After-sales service and technical assistance;
 - e. Commitments with regard to spare parts, security of supplies and the prices thereof;
 - f. Quality and technical merit of the works, services or supplies.
- 5.4.3.3 Additional criteria, if any used, shall be objective and non-discriminatory and shall be expressed in monetary value where applicable.

5.4.4 Bid Evaluation Procedure

- 5.4.4.1 Such methods and factors as specified in the bidding documents shall only be used in actual evaluation and not some other methods or criteria. Introduction of methods and factors not mentioned in the bidding documents would be considered unfair and shall be prohibited.
- 5.4.4.2 Irrespective of the currencies specified in the bidding documents, the quoted prices shall be converted into Ngultrum for the purposes of bid evaluation. The date for conversion of prices shall be chosen by the procuring agency. It shall be usually thirty (30) days before the bid opening in the case of works and the date of bid opening in the case of goods. The telegraphic transfer selling exchange rate prevailing at that date as posted by the Royal Monetary Authority of Bhutan shall be used for the conversion of prices.
- 5.4.4.3 Any bid price, discount or alternative bid price, which is not announced and recorded in the bid opening, shall not be taken into account in bid evaluation.

5.4.5 Abnormally Low Bid

- 5.4.5.1 Where the prices in a particular bid appear abnormally low or the bid appears seriously unbalanced, the Procuring Agency may reject it only after seeking written explanations from the bidder submitting the low or seriously unbalanced bid. In the case of a bid which appears seriously unbalanced, the procuring agency shall request from the bidder an analysis of rates of the relevant items.
- 5.4.5.2 The Procuring Agency may take into consideration explanations which are justified on objective grounds including:

- a. The economy of the construction method or the method by which the goods or services are to be provided; or
- b. The technical solutions chosen; or
- c. The exceptionally favourable conditions available to the bidder for the execution of the contract; or
- d. The originality of the work, product or service proposed by the bidder.
- e. The internal consistency of those prices with the construction methods and schedule proposed.

5.4.5.3

If the Procuring Agency decides to accept the abnormally low bid or the bid with the seriously unbalanced rates after considering the above factors, the bidder shall be required to provide additional differential security equivalent to the difference between the estimated amount and the quoted price in addition to the performance security.

5.4.6 Rejection of Bids

5.4.6.1

Without incurring any liability towards the contenders, the Procuring Agency may reject bids under any or all circumstances as given below:

- a. Bid/s being found not responsive as specified in the SBD;
- b. All bid prices substantially exceeding the estimated cost.;
- c. Any or some of the bids appearing to have been tampered with.
- d. The Rate Analysis submitted for the abnormally low bid is not acceptable to the client.

5.4.7 Action following Rejection of All Bids

5.4.7.1

Following the rejection of all bids, the Procuring Agency may, after taking measures to remove the causes of failure of the earlier bidding, proceed with a fresh bidding following the same bidding method or following an alternate method prescribed under 4.2 Procurement Methods under Chapter IV.

Chapter VI

Award of Contract and Elements of Contract

6.1 Award and Conclusion of Contract

6.1.1 Criteria for Award and Information on Award of Contract

- 6.1.1.1 Award of Contract shall be determined on the result of the bid evaluation exercises in the case of procurements conducted under the Open Tender/Bidding, Limited Tender/Bidding or Limited Enquiry methods.
- 6.1.1.2 Subject to the provisions under Chapter V, the procuring agency shall award the contract to the lowest evaluated bidder.
- 6.1.1.3 Procuring Agencies shall as soon as possible notify bidders in writing of decisions reached concerning the award of the contract. That notification shall include:
- a. The name of successful bidder
 - b. The date of the award of decision
 - c. The price to be paid for the goods, works or services.

6.1.2 Conclusion of Contract

- 6.1.2.1 Following a decision to award the contract to the chosen bidder, the parties shall enter into a written contract binding on both parties. The contract shall be compatible with the applicable laws of the Kingdom of Bhutan
- 6.1.2.2 The contract shall be signed by the duly authorised representatives of the parties and shall bear the date of signature.
- 6.1.2.3 Where the contract is not signed by both the parties simultaneously,
- a. The procuring agency shall send to the chosen bidder two original copies of (1) the full agreed contract and (2) the letter of acceptance, each signed by its duly authorised representative together with the dated signature;
 - b. The letter of acceptance shall indicate the deadline by which it must be accepted, which normally be no more than thirty (30) days;
 - c. The bidder, if he agrees to conclude the contract, shall sign and date all original copies of the contract and the letter of acceptance and return one copy of each to the procuring agency before the expiry of the deadline indicated in the letter of acceptance.
 - d. In case the selected bidder fails to sign the contract agreement within the deadline specified in the letter of acceptance, the positive difference in contract amount with the next lowest evaluated bid and his bid security amount shall be recovered from the selected bidder who fails to conclude the contract with the Procuring Agency .

6.2 Elements of Contract - General

6.2.1 The Contract Documents

- 6.2.1.1 The contract is the formal document, which sets out the complete agreement between the parties. It shall, therefore, contain all the terms and conditions of the contract, define the rights and obligations of the contracting parties and incorporate any documents necessary for the fulfillment of the contract as appropriate. Any such documents shall be clearly marked and referred to in the signed and dated contract.
- 6.2.1.2 Conditions of contract may be based on standard form contracts such as the model contract documents provided in this Procurement Rules & Regulations or as may be issued by the Ministry of Finance from time to time. These standard form contracts will contain "general" conditions of contract. Where the parties agree to include further conditions of contract or where further conditions are required by the standard form contracts, such conditions shall usually be referred to as "special" conditions of contract.
- 6.2.1.3 A contract shall contain among other things:
- a. The purpose of the contract, which shall be clear, precise, lawful and enforceable;
 - b. The Conditions of Contract;
 - c. A set of precise and clear technical specifications including drawings; and
 - d. A set of priced Bill of Quantities listing the supply or works items and their unit rates or prices.

6.3 Important Conditions of Contract

6.3.1 Price and Methods of Payment

- 6.3.1.1 Subject to the provisions under 6.3.2, the rates and prices in a contract shall be on a fixed basis with the following exceptions:
- a. A Procuring Agency may prescribe conditions relating to price adjustments due to difference/deficiencies in qualities within tolerable limits determined by it;
 - b. Increase or decrease in all duties, taxes and levies payable by the contractor as a result of Government orders after the date, thirty (30) days prior to the deadline for submission of bids.
 - c. The increase or decrease shall be payable/adjustable to/from the contractor or supplier in respect of the works executed or for the materials purchased after the date of effect of the Government order.
- 6.3.1.2 In a works contract, all materials required for the construction shall generally be supplied by the contractor and the cost included in the respective item rates. When the Procuring agency undertakes to supply some of the materials for ensuring quality or for security reasons, the contract shall specify the items that will be supplied by the Procuring Agency and the contractor shall be instructed to exclude the cost of those materials from their bills.
- 6.3.1.3 In the case of a work estimated to cost up to Nu. 0.10 (point one) million, the contract shall specify that no amounts shall be payable to the contractor till the whole work has been completed and a certificate of completion is issued to the contractor.

6.3.1.4 In case of works costing more than Nu.0.10 (point one) million, the contracts shall generally specify that amounts shall be payable at such times as agreed between the parties or at prescribed intervals coinciding with the physical progress of the work. (Interim payments or Running account payments).

6.3.1.5 In a works contract, if the contractor does not quote rates or prices against any items, the cost of such items shall be deemed to have been covered by other rates and prices quoted in the Bill of Quantities. No payments against execution of such items shall be made.

6.3.1.6 In all cases of works contracts and in applicable case of supply contracts, provisions shall be incorporated for deduction of Retention money, commonly known as Security Deposit from the amounts considered to be due and payable to the contractor or supplier. Provision for deduction of any other sums, which may become due and payable by the contractor to the employer, shall also be incorporated.

6.3.1.7 All kinds of bills/invoices shall be paid within one month from the date of certification for payment of such bills/invoices and such provisions shall be incorporated in the contract documents.

6.3.1.8 The price and methods of payment shall normally be based on one of the followings:

i. Fixed Price or Lump Sum Price on Works Contracts

6.3.1.9 The final all-inclusive price under this type of works contract shall be negotiated, agreed in advance and incorporated in the contract.

6.3.1.10 The contract shall specify that the amounts shall be payable in accordance with the provisions of clauses 6.3.1.3 to 6.3.1.7 depending upon the value of the contract within the agreed time period, usually 30 days, following the submission of a verified bill or claim.

ii. Unit Price Contracts

6.3.1.11 The price of particular items (units) shall be agreed between the parties based on the estimated quantity of units and the price shall be the unit price multiplied by the actual quantity of units provided.

6.3.1.12 The contract shall specify that amounts shall be payable in accordance with the clauses 6.3.1.3 to 6.3.1.7 within the agreed time period, usually 30 days, following the submission of a verified bill or claim.

iii. Cost plus fee

6.3.1.13 This is used for consulting service contracts finalised through a bidding process. The price under this type of contract shall generally be based on an agreed "billing rate" per unit of time (hour, day, month, for example) multiplied by the units of time actually spent, together with any reimbursable costs foreseen and agreed upon in the contract.

6.3.1.14 A contract of this type should include a "maximum payment" clause with an obligation on the service provider to complete the tasks assigned without exceeding the amount of the agreed maximum payment.

6.3.1.15

The contract shall specify that payment of the fee shall be made at prescribed time intervals (weekly or monthly, for example) generally coinciding with the progress of the execution of the services and following the submission of an "invoice" detailing the services provided during the relevant period. Payment of the costs shall similarly be made upon the submission of an "invoice" which shall include all relevant receipts required by the contract.

iv. Advance payments

6.3.1.16

The types, limits and the required documents for payment of advances and the method of their adjustments shall be incorporated in accordance with the bid documents if provisions for advance payments are required to be made. Generally, such advances shall be in accordance with the provisions of 5.1.11 in Chapter V.

v. Payment/Discharge of Securities

6.3.1.17

The time, procedure and the formalities for payment or discharge of each type of the securities shall be incorporated in the contract, generally along with the terms prescribing their submission, recovery or adjustments in favour of the employer due to the default of the contractor.

6.3.2 Price Adjustments

6.3.2.1

Adjustments in Rates and Prices shall generally be provided for in a contract agreement only under the following conditions:

- a. These shall be applicable only in the cases of works and supply contracts of more than 18 months duration. Irrespective of the duration of contract, no price adjustments shall be allowed for the works & supplies made within first 18 months of any contract.

6.3.2.2

Where the rates and prices are subject to adjustments due to rise and fall in the cost of labour and/or materials, provisions relating to the possibility and method of price adjustments may be prescribed and included in the Standard Bidding Documents. Either party, under such circumstances, shall be allowed to seek a price adjustment by submission of documentary evidence of the changes in the market prices of the components.

6.3.3 Period and Place of Performance/Delivery

6.3.3.1

All contracts shall specify the period of performance, place of performance, time and place of delivery. In construction contracts, for example, this may include such things as:

- a. The time limit for the contract in a detailed schedule or program setting out the specific manner in which the contractor shall perform the contract and a description of the construction plan and its proposed operation;
- b. The starting and completion dates, particularly where complex projects are broken down into several "stages" or "key dates".

6.3.4 Scope, Quantity and Quality

6.3.4.1

The scope, quantity and quality of the contractual obligations shall be the fundamental conditions of the contract and will consist, among others, of:

- a. The identification and proper definition of the key elements of the contract such as the parties, the nature and quantity of the works, goods or services concerned, the specifications used, etc.;
- b. The Specifications which shall be based on performance requirements.
 - i. Note: during the bidding procedure, any reference to brand names, catalogue numbers or any other method of specification which results in the identification of a single supplier shall be avoided UNLESS the goods cannot be described sufficiently objectively without recourse to such a specification. If such a specification is used, the reference shall be followed by the words "or equivalent or higher " and the specifications shall permit offers of alternative goods which offer equivalent guarantees of performance, safety and reliability;
- c. The Standards with which goods, equipment or materials shall comply, or any performance standard wherever possible. These shall be defined, both in the bidding and contract stages, by reference to internationally or nationally accepted standards. In all cases, the procuring agency should mention that any standards which ensure equivalent or superior quality or performance to the standards mentioned would be acceptable. The Procuring Agency should also ensure that the goods, equipments or materials delivered are as per the standards and specifications specified in the Bidding Document;
- d. The responsibilities of the parties, which shall include liability of the parties in respect of all applicable laws;
- e. Provisions relating to a guarantee of the quality of workmanship and materials for a stipulated period beyond the completion of the contract and a requirement for the contractor or supplier to make good at his own expense, any defects that may arise during the warranty period. The warranty period or the defects liability period for all new civil construction works shall not be for less than a period of 12 months depending on the nature of works from the date of taking over the completed works or any section of it;
- f. Provisions relating to the costs of insurance and transportation, the use of internationally recognised contract terms such as the ICC's Incoterms being preferred;
- g. Provisions relating to compensation for the procuring agency in the event of delays in the completion of works or delivery of goods resulting in extra cost, loss of revenues or deprivation of other benefits to the procuring agency. These shall be subject to the conditions and limits prescribed under clause 6.3.4.2.
- h. Lawful requirements relating to the use of local labour and materials;
- i. Provisions relating to performance securities to ensure the completion of works or of the supply, installation and proper performance of goods and to protect the procuring agency against the failure of the contractor or supplier to perform his contractual obligations. These may be in the form of cash warrant/demand draft for the period of the validity of the contract or bank guarantees. The level of such securities shall generally be ten percent (10%) of the contract value;

6.3.4.2

Compensation for the Procuring agency, which is generally referred to as "Liquidated Damages" in the contract documents, if applied, shall be within the following limits:

- a. It should not be less than point zero five (0.05%) percent and should not be more than zero point one (0.1%) percent for every day of delay; and

- b. The total amount of compensation shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the Contract Price. Similarly in case of revenue generating projects, a bonus may be paid to the contractor/supplier for completion of work/delivery ahead of completion date when such early completion/delivery would be of benefit to the employer. However such bonus payment would be subject to the approval of Ministry of Finance.

6.3.5 Sub-Contractors

- 6.3.5.1 The procuring Agency shall define the mechanism for sub-contracting if necessary. The contract shall contain provisions relating to the employment and obligations of sub-contractors if any to be employed by the successful bidder. Such provisions shall ensure that:
- a. The contractor does not, without the written approval of the Procuring Agency, sub-contract any part of the works. In the event an approval is accorded by the Procuring Agency, such approval does not relieve the contractor of his obligations under the contract;
 - b. The sub-contractor complies with all applicable provisions of the Procurement Rules & Regulations and the laws of the Kingdom of Bhutan;
 - c. The sub-contractor abides by any provision relating to the nationality of labourers or origin of goods stipulated in the bidding documents and contract; and
 - d. Payments under the contract are made directly to the successful bidder, not to the sub-contractor unless explicitly agreed otherwise between the agency and the contractor;

6.3.6 Variation in Quantities

- 6.3.6.1 Proper conditions for variations in the contract shall be made in case there are strong possibilities that such variations would occur during the period of execution of a contract. Generally, such conditions would be necessary in works contracts. The conditions for variations in a work contract shall cover the possibilities of:
- a. Increase or decrease in the quantity of works
 - b. Deletion or insertion of any item of works;
 - c. Change in level, lines, positions and dimensions of any part of the Works;
 - d. Change in the character, quality or kind of any work;
 - e. Additional works of any kind;
 - f. Changes in the sequence or timing of construction activities.

- 6.3.6.2 All variations shall be ordered by issuing written instructions to the Contractor. The contract conditions shall specify the authority, which will be responsible to issue variation orders.

Note: Generally, the Head of Office of the Procuring Agency shall, in accordance with the powers delegated to him, issue variation orders in writing as and when necessary. All powers in a Procuring Agency shall be exercised by the Head of Office who shall be primarily accountable for all affairs in the agency.

i. Pricing of the Variation

- 6.3.6.3 The conditions of variations in a works contract shall specify the mechanism for valuation of the varied items in accordance with the following:
- a. All variations, except for those listed under item 6.3.6.1 (a), shall be valued at the contract rates and prices as mentioned in the priced Bill of Quantities. If the contract does not contain any rate(s) applicable to the variation, suitable rates or prices will be agreed upon between the Procuring Agency and the Contractor. In the event of disagreement between the parties, the procuring Agency shall fix the rates as may be considered fair and appropriate and those shall be notified to the contractor.

- i. Note: Generally, the average percentage above or below the applicable BSR quoted by the contractor shall be taken into consideration for fixing prices of the varied items not existing in the contract (Bill of Quantities).
- b. For variations listed under item 6.3.6.1 (a), variations shall be valued at the contract rates and prices, if the variations in quantities are within the limit of twenty percent (20%) for each item of work.
- c. If the final quantity of the varied work falling under item 6.3.6.1 (a) exceeds by more than twenty percent (20%) from the quantity in the contract Bill of Quantities, and the value of this variation exceeds one percent (1%) of the Original Contract Price.
- d. The excess quantities executed over the limit of twenty percent (20%) only shall be valued at a suitable rate or price agreed upon between the Procuring Agency and the contractor. In the event of disagreement between the parties, the procuring Agency shall fix the rates as may be considered fair and appropriate and those shall be notified to the contractor. (see Notes above 6.3.6.3 - a.)
- e. If the quantity of the variation is more than twenty percent (20%) of the contract quantity, but the value of this variation is less than one percent (1%) of the Original Contract Price, the excess quantity shall be valued at the rate or price set out in the contract

6.3.7 Termination

6.3.7.1

The conditions for early termination of the contract may be specified in the contract. These may include a force majeure clause, which shall provide that the failure on the part of the parties to fulfill their contractual obligations will not be considered to be a breach of contract if such a failure is due to unforeseeable events outside the control of the parties. The conditions for termination should set out the consequences of such an event.

6.3.8 Dispute Resolution

6.3.8.1

The mechanisms for dispute resolution, intended to regulate events following the breach of a contract by one of the parties, shall be prescribed in the contract. This will include:

- a. The language and interpretation of the contract. Where more than one language is used, reference must be made to the language version which takes precedence;
- b. The governing law and forum of dispute resolution. For contracts to be performed in Bhutan, the governing law should be the law of Bhutan and the forum may be any mediation as designated by the parties by common agreement or National Arbitration Committee or the Courts of Bhutan;
- c. A clause requiring the parties to attempt to reach an amicable settlement before turning to the courts or other tribunals.

Chapter VII

Procurement of Consultants' Services

7.1 Use of Consultants

- 7.1.1 The procuring agency may contract with firms of consultants or individual consultants for the purposes of the provision of expert advice or assistance in institutional matters and specialised services in connection with the implementation of projects and detailed engineering and design.
- 7.1.2 Consulting firms will be preferred where the work involves the application of multi-disciplinary expertise and requires the support of an organization with competent personnel. Individual consultants will be used where a particular assignment can be best carried out by an individual expert with the requisite qualifications and experience.

7.2 Conflict of Interest

- 7.2.1 While selecting, the procurement agency will ensure that consultants provide professional, objective, and impartial advice and at all times hold the client's interests paramount, without any consideration for future work, and that in providing advice they avoid conflicts with other assignments and their own corporate interests. Consultants shall not be hired for any assignment that would be in conflict with their prior or current obligations to other clients, or that may place them in a position of being unable to carry out the assignment in the best interest of the procuring agency. Consultants shall not be hired under the circumstances set forth below:
- a. A firm that has been engaged by the Procuring Agency to provide goods, works, or services (other than consulting services) for a project, and each of its affiliates, shall be disqualified from providing consulting services.
 - b. a firm hired to provide consulting services for the preparation or implementation of a project, and each of its affiliates, shall be disqualified from subsequently providing goods, works or services (other than consulting services covered by these Guidelines) resulting from or directly related to the firm's consulting services for such preparation or implementation.
 - c. Neither consultants (including their personnel and sub-consultants) nor any of their affiliates shall be hired for any assignment that, by its nature, may be in conflict with another assignment of the consultants.
 - d. Consultants hired to prepare Terms of Reference (TOR) for an assignment shall not be hired for the assignment in question.

7.3 Method of Selection of Consultants

7.3.1 Quality and Cost Based Selection (QCBS)

i. The Selection Process

- 7.3.1.1 QCBS uses a competitive process among short-listed firms that takes into account the quality of the proposal and the cost of the services in the selection of the successful firm. Cost as a factor of selection shall be used judiciously. The relative weight to be given to the quality and cost shall be determined for each case depending on the nature of the assignment.

7.3.1.2

The selection process shall include the following steps:

- a. preparation of the TOR and criteria for evaluation;
- b. preparation of cost estimate and the budget;
- c. advertising for expression of interest (EOI);
- d. preparation of the short list of consultants;
- e. preparation and issuance of the Request for Proposal (RFP) [which should include: the Letter of Invitation (LOI); Instructions to Consultants (ITC); the TOR and the proposed draft contract];
- f. receipt of proposals/criteria to be used for evaluation;
- g. evaluation of technical proposals: consideration of quality;
- h. public opening of financial proposals;
- i. evaluation of financial proposal;
- j. final evaluation of quality and cost; and
- k. negotiations and award of the contract to the selected firm.

ii. Preparation of Terms of Reference (TOR)

7.3.1.3

The Procurement Agency shall be responsible for preparing the TOR for the assignment. TOR shall be prepared by a person(s) or a firm specialized in the area of the assignment. The scope of the services described in the TOR shall be compatible with the available budget. TOR shall define clearly the objectives, goals, and scope of the assignment and provide background information (including a list of existing relevant studies and basic data) to facilitate the consultants' preparation of their proposals. If transfer of knowledge or training is an objective, it should be specifically outlined along with details of number of staff to be trained, and so forth, to enable consultants to estimate the required resources. TOR shall list the services and surveys necessary to carry out the assignment and the expected outputs (for example, reports, data, maps, surveys). However, TOR should not be too detailed and inflexible, so that competing consultants may propose their own methodology and staffing. Firms shall be encouraged to comment on the TOR in their proposals. The Procurement Agencies and consultants' respective responsibilities should be clearly defined in the TOR.

iii. Preparation of Cost Estimate (Budget)

7.3.1.4

Preparation of a well-thought-through cost estimate is essential if realistic budgetary resources are to be earmarked. The cost estimate shall be based on the Procurement Agency's assessment of the resources needed to carry out the assignment: staff time, logistical support, and physical inputs (for example, vehicles, laboratory equipment). Costs shall be divided into two broad categories: (a) fee or remuneration (according to the type of contract used) and (b) reimbursables, and further divided into foreign and local costs. The cost of staff time shall be estimated on a realistic basis for foreign and national personnel.

iv. Advertising for shortlist

7.3.1.5

To obtain expressions of interest, the Agency shall advertise a request for expressions of interest for each contract for consulting firms in the national media and, where feasible, on a website which has free access, including if appropriate and based on nature of consultancy in an international newspaper or a technical magazine. The information requested shall be the minimum required to make a judgment on the firm's suitability and not be so complex as to discourage consultants from expressing interest. Not less than 14 days from the date of publication shall be provided for responses, before preparation of the short list.

v. Preparation of Short List of Consultants

7.3.1.6

The Procurement agency is responsible for preparation of the short list with due consideration to those firms expressing interest that possess the relevant qualifications. It is advisable that the Short lists should comprise, where possible, about six firms or individuals. The short list should preferably comprise consultants of the same category with similar capacity, and business objectives. The short list of firms shall not include Individual Consultants.

vi. Preparation and Issuance of the Request for Proposals (RFP)

7.3.1.7

The RFP shall include (a) a Letter of Invitation, (b) Information to Consultants, (c) the TOR, and (d) the proposed contract. The procurement agency shall use the applicable standard RFPs with minimal changes, as necessary to address project-specific conditions.

vii. Receipt of Proposals

The Procurement Agency shall allow enough time for the consultants to prepare their proposals. The time allowed shall depend on the nature of the services, but normally shall not be less than 4 weeks. During this interval, the firms may request clarifications about the information provided in the RFP. The Agency shall provide these clarifications in writing and copy them to all firms on the short list (who intend to submit proposals). If necessary, the Agency shall extend the deadline for submission of proposals. The technical and financial proposals shall be submitted at the same time. No amendments to the technical or financial proposal shall be accepted after the deadline. To safeguard the integrity of the process, the technical and financial proposals shall be submitted in separate sealed envelopes. The technical envelopes shall be opened immediately by a committee of officials after the closing time for submission of proposals. The financial proposals shall remain sealed until they are opened publicly. Any proposal received after the closing time for submission of proposals shall be returned unopened.

viii. Evaluation of Proposals: Consideration of Quality and Cost

7.3.1.9

The evaluation of the proposals shall be carried out in two stages: first the quality, and then the cost. Evaluators of technical proposals shall not have access to the financial proposals until the technical evaluation, is concluded. Financial proposals shall be opened only thereafter. The evaluation shall be carried out in full conformity with the provisions of the RFP.

ix. Evaluation of the Quality

7.3.1.10

The evaluation committee shall evaluate each technical proposal (using an evaluation committee of at least two specialists in the sector), taking into account several criteria (a) the consultant's relevant experience for the assignment, (b) the quality of the methodology proposed, (c) the qualifications of the key staff proposed, (d) transfer of knowledge, if required in the TOR, and (e) the extent of participation by nationals among key staff in the performance of the assignment. Each criterion shall be marked on a scale of 1 to 100. Then the marks shall be weighted to become scores. The proposed weights shall be disclosed in the RFP. The indicative /suggestive scores range could be:

- a. Consultant's specific experience: 0 to 10 points
- b. Methodology: 20 to 50 points
- c. Key personnel: 30 to 60 points
- d. Transfer of knowledge: 0 to 10 points
- e. Participation by nationals: 0 to 10 points
- f. Total: 100 points

7.3.1.11

The evaluation committee shall normally divide these criteria into subcriteria. The number of sub-criteria should be kept to the essential. The evaluation committee shall evaluate each proposal on the basis of its responsiveness to the TOR. A proposal considered unsuitable shall be rejected at this stage if it does not respond to important aspects of the TOR or it fails to achieve a minimum technical score specified in the RFP.

7.3.1.12

At the end of the process, the evaluation committee shall prepare a Technical Evaluation Report of the "quality" of the proposals. All records relating to the evaluation, such as individual mark sheets, shall be retained until completion of the project and its audit.

x. Evaluation of Cost

7.3.1.13

After the evaluation of quality is completed, the procuring agency shall inform the consultants who have submitted proposals of the technical points assigned to each consultant and shall notify those consultants whose proposals did not meet the minimum qualifying mark or were considered non responsive to the RFP and TOR that their financial proposals will be returned unopened after the signature of the contract. The procuring entity shall simultaneously notify the consultants that have secured the minimum qualifying mark, the date, time, and place set for opening the financial proposals. The opening date shall be defined allowing sufficient time for consultants to make arrangements to attend the opening of the financial proposals. The financial proposals shall be opened publicly by the Bid Opening Committee in the presence of representatives of the consultants who choose to attend.

7.3.1.14

The name of the consultant, the technical points, and the proposed prices shall be read aloud. The Bid Opening Committee shall also prepare the minutes of the bid opening and a copy of this record shall be promptly sent to all consultants who submitted proposals.

7.3.1.15

The evaluation committee shall then review the financial proposals. If there are any arithmetical errors, they shall be corrected. For the purpose of comparing proposals, the costs shall be converted to a single currency as stated in the RFP.

The proposal with the lowest cost may be given a financial score of 100 and other proposals given financial scores that are inversely proportional to their prices. Alternatively, a directly proportional or other methodology may be used in allocating the marks for the cost. The methodology to be used shall be described in the RFP.

xi. Combined Quality and Cost Evaluation

7.3.1.16

The total score shall be obtained by weighting the quality and cost scores and adding them. The weight for the "cost" shall be chosen, taking into account the complexity of the assignment and the relative importance of quality. The weight for cost may normally be 40 points out of a total score of 100. The proposed weightings for quality and cost shall be specified in the RFP. The firm obtaining the highest total score shall be invited for negotiations.

xii. Negotiations and Award of Contract

7.3.1.17

Negotiations shall include discussions of the TOR, the methodology, staffing, Agency's inputs, and special conditions of the contract. These discussions shall not substantially alter the original TOR or the terms of the contract, lest the quality of the final product, its cost, and the relevance of the initial evaluation be affected. Major reductions in work inputs should not be made solely to meet the budget. The final TOR and the agreed methodology shall be incorporated in the "description of services", which shall be a part of the contract.

7.3.1.18

The selected firm should not be allowed to substitute key staff, unless both parties agree that undue delay in the selection process makes such substitution unavoidable or that such changes are critical to meet the objectives of the assignment. If this is not the case and if it is established that key staff were included in the proposal without confirming their availability, the firm may be disqualified and the process continued with the next ranked firm. The key staff proposed for substitution shall have qualifications equal to or better than the key staff initially proposed.

7.3.1.19

Financial negotiations shall include clarification of the consultants' tax liability in the Bhutan (if any) and how this tax liability has been or would be reflected in the contract. As Lump-Sum Contracts payments are based on delivery of outputs (or products), the offered price shall include all costs (staff time, overhead, travel, hotel, etc.). Consequently, if the selection method for a Lump-sum contract included price as a component, this price shall not be negotiated. In the case of Time-based Contracts, payment is based on inputs (staff time and reimbursables) and the offered price shall include staff rates and an estimation of the amount of reimbursables. When the selection method includes price as a component, negotiations of staff rates should not take place, except in special circumstances, like for example, staff rates offered are much higher than typically charged rates by consultants for similar contracts. Consequently, the prohibition of negotiation does not preclude the right of the Agency to ask for clarifications, and, if fee are very high, to ask for change of fees. Reimbursables are to be paid on actual expenses incurred at cost upon presentation of receipts and therefore are not subject to negotiations. If the negotiations fail to result in an acceptable contract, the Agency shall terminate the negotiations and invite the next ranked firm for negotiations. The consultant shall be informed of the reasons for termination of the negotiations. Once negotiations commence with the next ranked firm, the procuring agency shall not reopen the earlier negotiations.

7.3.2 Other Methods of Selection

i. General

7.3.2.1

This section describes the selection methods other than QCBS, and the circumstances under which they are acceptable. All the relevant provisions of 7.3.1 (QCBS) shall apply whenever competition is used.

ii. Selection under a Fixed Budget (FBS)

7.3.2.2

This method is appropriate only when the assignment is simple and can be precisely defined and when the budget is fixed. The RFP shall indicate the available budget and request the consultants to provide their best technical and financial proposals in separate envelopes, within the budget. TOR should be particularly well prepared to make sure that the budget is sufficient for the consultants to perform the expected tasks. Evaluation of all technical proposals shall be carried out first as in the QCBS method. Then the price proposals shall be opened in public and prices shall be read out aloud. Proposals that exceed the indicated budget shall be rejected. The Consultant who has submitted the highest ranked technical proposal among the rest shall be selected and invited to negotiate a contract.

iii. Least-Cost Selection (LCS)

7.3.2.3

This method is only appropriate for selecting consultants for assignments of a standard or routine nature (engineering design of noncomplex works, and so forth) where well-established practices and standards exist. Under this method, a "minimum" qualifying mark for the "quality" is established. Proposals, to be submitted in two envelopes, are invited from a short list. Technical proposals are opened first and evaluated. Those securing less than the minimum qualifying mark are rejected, and the financial proposals of the rest are opened in public. The firm with the lowest price shall then be selected. Under this method, the minimum qualifying mark shall be established, understanding that all proposals above the minimum compete only on "cost." The minimum qualifying mark shall be stated in the RFP.

iv. Selection Based on the Consultants' Qualifications (CQS)

7.3.2.4

This method may be used for small assignments for which the need for preparing and evaluating competitive proposals is not justified. In such cases, the procuring agency shall prepare the TOR, request expressions of interest and information on the consultants' experience and competence relevant to the assignment, establish a short list, and select the firm with the most appropriate qualifications and references. The selected firm shall be asked to submit a combined technical-financial proposal and then be invited to negotiate the contract.

v. Single-Source Selection (SSS)

Single-source selection of consultants does not provide the benefits of competition with regard to quality and cost, lacks transparency in selection, and could encourage unacceptable practices. Therefore, single source selection shall be used only in exceptional cases. The justification for single-source selection shall be examined in the context of the overall interests of the project. Single-source selection may be appropriate only if it presents a clear advantage over competition:

(a) for tasks that represent a natural continuation of previous work carried out by the firm, (b) in emergency cases, such as in response to disasters and for consulting services required during the period of time immediately following the emergency, (c) for very small assignments, or (d) when only one firm is qualified or has experience of exceptional worth for the assignment.

vi. Selection of Independent Individual Consultant

7.3.2.6 Individual consultants are employed on assignments for which (a) teams of personnel are not required, (b) no additional outside (home office) professional support is required, and (c) the experience and qualifications of the individual are the paramount requirement.

7.3.2.7 Individual consultants are selected on the basis of their qualifications for the assignment. Advertisement is not required and consultants do not need to submit proposals. Consultants shall be selected through comparison of qualifications of at least three candidates among those who have expressed interest in the assignment or have been approached directly by the agency. Individuals considered for comparison of qualifications shall meet the minimum relevant qualifications and those selected to be employed by the agency shall be the best qualified and shall be fully capable of carrying out the assignment. Capability is judged on the basis of academic background, experience, and, as appropriate, knowledge of the local conditions, such as local language, culture, administrative system, and government organization.

7.3.2.9 From time to time, permanent staff or associates of a consulting firm may be available as individual consultants. In such cases, the conflict of interest provisions described in this Procurement Rules & Regulations shall apply to the parent firm.

7.3.2.10 Individual consultants may be selected on a sole-source basis with due justification in exceptional cases such as: (a) tasks that are a continuation of previous work that the consultant has carried out and for which the consultant was selected competitively; (b) assignments with total expected duration of less than 6 months; (c) emergency situations resulting from natural disasters; and (d) when the individual is the only consultant qualified for the assignment.

7.4 Types of Contracts and Important Provisions

7.4.1 Types of Contracts

i. Lump Sum Contract

7.4.1.1 Lump sum contracts are used mainly for assignments in which the content and the duration of the services and the required output of the consultants are clearly defined. They are widely used for simple planning and feasibility studies, environmental studies, detailed design of standard or common structures, preparation of data processing systems, and so forth. Payments are linked to outputs (deliverables), such as reports, drawings, bills of quantities, bidding documents, and software programs. Lump sum contracts are easy to administer because payments are due on clearly specified outputs.

ii. Time-Based Contract

7.4.1.2 This type of contract is appropriate when it is difficult to define the scope and the length of services, either because the services are related to activities by others for which the completion period may vary, or because the input of the consultants required to attain the objectives of the assignment is difficult to assess. This type of contract is widely used for complex studies, supervision of construction, advisory services, and most training assignments. Payments are based on agreed hourly, daily, weekly, or monthly rates for staff (who are normally named in the contract) and on reimbursable items using actual expenses and/or agreed unit prices. The rates for staff include salary, social costs, overhead, fee (or profit), and, where appropriate, special allowances. This type of contract shall include a maximum amount of total payments to be made to the consultants. This ceiling amount should include a contingency allowance for unforeseen work.

Important Provisions

i. Price Adjustment

7.4.2.1

To adjust the remuneration for foreign and/or local inflation, a price adjustment provision shall be included in the contract if its duration is expected to exceed 18 months. Contracts of shorter duration may include a provision for price adjustment when local or foreign inflation is expected to be high and unpredictable.

ii. Payment Provisions

7.4.2.2

Payment provisions, including amounts to be paid, schedule of payments, and payment procedures, shall be agreed upon during negotiations. Payments may be made at regular intervals (as under time-based contracts) or for agreed outputs (as under lump sum contracts). Payments for advances (for example, for mobilization costs) exceeding ten percent (10%) of the contract amount should normally be backed by advance payment securities.

iii. Bid and Performance Securities

7.4.2.3

Bid and performance securities are not recommended for consultants' services. Their enforcement is often subject to judgment calls, they can be easily abused, and they tend to increase the costs to the consulting industry without evident benefits.

iv. Agency's Contribution

7.4.2.4

The Agency may assign members of its own professional staff to the assignment in different capacities. The contract shall give the details governing such staff, known as counterpart staff, as well as facilities that shall be provided by the Agency such as housing, office space, secretarial support, utilities, materials, and vehicles. The contract shall indicate measures the consultant can take if any of the items cannot be provided or have to be withdrawn during the assignment, and the compensation the consultant will receive in such a case.

CHAPTER VIII

Institutional Arrangements

8.1 Procurement Grievance Mechanism

- 8.1.1 The obligations of this Procurement Rules & Regulations and imposed on Procuring Agencies are duties owed to suppliers, contractors and service providers.
- 8.1.2 Any supplier, contractor or service provider who has or is likely to suffer, loss or injury resulting from an alleged breach of such duty, may make a complaint or seek review in accordance with this section, provided that the complaint or review procedure shall be brought promptly and in any event within 20 days of the date upon which the complainant became aware or should have become aware of the circumstances giving rise to the complaint.
- 8.1.3 A supplier, contractor or service provider may, in the event of a perceived breach of a duty imposed upon a Procuring Agency in respect of a specific procurement procedure, submit a written complaint to the head of the procuring agency responsible for such procedure.
- 8.1.4 The head of agency shall, within 15 days after the submission of the complaint, issue a written decision which shall:
- a. state the reasons for the decision; and
 - b. if the complaint is upheld in whole or in part, indicate the corrective measures are to be taken.
- 8.1.5 Where such a decision has not been delivered within the time specified, or the complainant is not satisfied with the decision, the complainant may initiate a review procedure before the Independent Review Body established by the Ministry of Finance.
- 8.1.6 A review procedure shall be brought by the complainant within 10 days of the decision of the Head of the Procuring Agency or, where no such decision has been taken, within 25 days of the original complaint.
- 8.1.7 The Independent Review Body may, by interlocutory decision, where necessary, or final decision on the substance:
- a. make a declaration with regard to the legal rules or principles which apply to the subject matter of the proceedings;
 - b. annul in whole or in part any unlawful act or decision of the procuring agency, whose power shall include the power to remove any unlawful technical or other specifications;
 - c. prohibit the procuring agency from acting unlawfully, from making an unlawful decision or from following an unlawful procedure;
 - d. order the termination of the procurement procedure;
- 8.1.8 The Independent Review Body may also order the suspension of the procurement procedure pending its final decision on the merits of the claim where:
- a. the complainant demonstrates a prima facie case, such that it is more likely than not that he will succeed in his claim; and

- b. the complainant is likely to suffer irreparable harm in the absence of a suspension; and
- c. the grant of the suspension would not cause disproportionate harm to the public interest, the procuring agency or to other suppliers and contractors.

If the decision of the Independent Review Body is not acceptable then an appeal may be made to the Court only on a question of law. In such a case, any concession granted by the Review Body shall stand withdrawn.

8.1.10

The constitution, rules of procedures and operation of the Independent Review Body shall be established by the Ministry of Finance.

8.1.11

If the facts disclose a potential issue of corruption, the Independent Review Body shall immediately refer the case to the Anti Corruption Commission.

8.2 Public Procurement Policy Division

8.2.1 Establishment of a Public Procurement Policy Division (PPPD)

8.2.1.1

A PPPD shall be established within the Ministry of Finance to facilitate policy and professional development in the field of procurement.

8.2.1.2

The PPPD shall report to the Secretary, Ministry of Finance on its activities.

8.2.1.3

The PPPD and its staff shall not make contract award recommendations, serve as a member of any Tender Committee or carry out any activity as a procuring agency.

8.2.2 Functions of the Public Procurement Policy Division

8.2.2.1

The PPPD shall have the following duties and authorities:

- a. monitor the implementation of the Procurement Rules & Regulations through the collection and analysis of reports provided by the procuring agencies based on reporting formats developed by the PPPD;
